Kensington, Decemb. 23.

THE following Address of the Corporation of Deale was presented to His Majesty by John Brewer Esq; their Recorder, Introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, which His Majesty received very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of Deale in the County of Kent.

THE daily Influences of Your Majesty's Grace and Favour, dispens'd to all Your Subjects, makes it our Common and Undoubted Interest (as well as Duty) to Pray for Your Long and Prosperous Reign, and yet more especially of us (Your Majesty's Most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects) for Your late Charter of Incorporation, by which we are Indulged with weekly Markets for the Better Accommodation and Benefit of Your Royal Navy, (which hath ever been Your Majesty's especial Care) and also with Courts of Justice, for the ease of Suitors, and Reformation of Manners; which Gracious Intentions of Your Majesty's for the good Government of Your Subjects, we shall Improve our utmost Endeavours to see Accomplished; That Strangers to Your Majesty's Dominions, (for none can be to Your Royal Virtues) upon their first Landing, may have just Cause to believe, that Your Majesty is not only a Great, but a Happy King of a Happy People, and perceive the Advantages of a Government thus Founded on Subjects Hearts, and not their Fears: And that Your Majesty may thus long Reign, are the Prayers of Your Dutiful Subjects.

Warsaw, Dec. 11. N. S. The Senate of this Kingdom, after several Meetings about the Business of Elbing, resolved to make this Proposal to the Elector of Brandenburgh, That they will pay his Electoral Highness 300000 Dollers presently, and 100000 more afterwards, in different Payments, and give good Security for the Performance hereof, upon condition the Elector does withdraw his Forces out of the City of Elbing, and restore that City to the Condition 'twas in at the time his Troops entred the same; Which having been communicated to the Elector, and the Courier sent to Berlin on this occasion being returned, his Electoral Highness's Ministers residing here, did this day acquaint the Senate, That his Electoral Highness has accepted these Proposals, with some few Alterations, which are of so little Importance, that this Affair is looked upon to be as good as concluded; And the Crown-Treasurer is ordered to take care, that the Money be ready to be paid to his Electoral Highness according to this Agreement. The Crown-General is gone to Radom, where he and divers other General Officers are to meet, in order to settle the Accounts of the Army.

Peterwaradin, Dec. 6. The Ceremonies to be observed at the Meeting of the Imperial and Turkish Ambassadors on the Frontiers near Salankemen, being agreed upon between Count Guido of Staremberg, General of the Imperial Forces in these Parts, and an Officer, whom the Bassa of Belgrade had sent to settle the same with him; Count Oting, the Emperor's Ambassador, came to this Place on the 30th past by Water from Futack. Count Staremberg sent a Colonel of Foot, and some other Officers on board a Saick, to meet his Excellency about a League from hence, and himself, accompanied with the Baron Nehm, Governor of this Place, and divers other Persons of Quality, received him at his Landing, and conducted him to the House prepared for his Reception. Yesterday Count Staremberg, the Imperial Ambassador, the Baron of Nehm, and the other Persons of Quality, and Officers of Note, that were here, attended by a Guard of about 200 Horse, went to Salankemen. The Turkish Ambassador arrived the 30th past at Belgrade, and was to set out from thence in like manner yesterday, with the Bassa of that City, and a Guard of 200 Horse. To morrow is the day appointed for their Meeting; When the Ambassadors with their Retinue come within a certain distance of each other, they are to alight, and to advance at the same time to the Place, which separates the Dominions of the two Empires; There the Imperial Ambassador is to be received by the Bassa of Belgrade, and the Turkish Ambassador by Count Staremberg, and after the proper Compliments have passed between them, they are to proceed on their respective Journeys. Preparations are making here for the Reception of the Turkish Ambassador, who is expected to-morrow night.

Vienna, Dec. 16. A Courier was sent this week to Count Marsigly, the Emperor's Commissioner for settling the Limits between the German and Turkish Territories, with the last Resolutions of this Court, touching the Dispute about the Town of Novi on the River Unna, and its Dependencies; And, the Conditions offered by the Emperor for accommodating this Matter being very reasonable, 'tis not doubted but the Turks will accept of them. The Repartition of the Quarters for the Imperial Forces in Hungary, and Transilvania, is not yet adjusted between the Emperor's Ministers and the Deputies from those Countries; and, it's believed, a Diet of the Kingdom of Hungary will shortly be summoned to meet at Presbourg to settle those Matters. Count Lemberg is gone from hence on his Embassy to Rome. The Cardinal Santa-Croce, Nuncio from the Pope, intends to begin his Journey thither in few days. We expect by our next Letters from Peterwaradin to receive Advice, that the Imperial and Turkish Ambassadors have met on the Frontiers. The Count of Staremberg is to conduct the Turkish Ambassador to Peterwaradin, and there he is to be received by the Commissioners, whom the Emperor has appointed to accompany him in his Journey hither, and to defray his Expences.

Hamburgh, Dec 25. The Conferences between the Ministers of the several Princes, who have offered their Mediation for accommodating the Affair of Holstein, are continued, but hitherto with no great Success; Several Proposals have been made, but none, that satisfie both Parties: 'Tis said, that King of Sweden has offer'd, That his Forces shall march out of the Dutchy of Holstein, provided a like number of the Troops of the Circle of Lower Saxony may come in their stead, but that the King of Denmark does not consent to it. In the mean time the Danish Forces in Holstein are commanded to be in a readiness to march upon the first Orders they shall receive; and a Train of Artillery lies ready at Gelasstad; However our Letters from Copenhagen assure us, that the King of Denmark has again put off his Journey to Holstein, and that part of his Servants and Equipage, who were on their way thither, have been Countermanded. The Points in Dispute between the Court of Denmark, and the Foreign Ministers residing there who have not the Character of Ambassadors, continue undecided; They are said to relate chiefly to the
